

The remains of Joe Lantzenhiser were brought to his former home in this county for burial. The body arrived early Wednesday morning, accompanied by a brother from Dixon, Ill. The cortege was met at Decatur by the brothers of this county and taken at once to the home of his widowed mother, Mrs. Lewis Lantzenhiser, in Blue Creek township. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the home of the mother, and burial took place in the Tricker cemetery.

Berne Witness, Adams County, IN; August 16 1912

Contributed by Jackie Sanders