

News Banner, Bluffton, Wells County, Indiana; Oct. 25, 2003

Edna Helen Manley, 87

A lifelong resident of Adams County, Edna Helen Manley, 87, died at 4 a.m. Friday, Oct. 24 at Chalet Village Nursing Home in Berne, where she had been a patient since December of 1994.

Born July 15, 1916 in Kirkland Township to Chauncey Orville and Mary Mae Julian Manley, she was a homemaker and formerly attended the Willshire Church of God.

Survivors include four sisters, Mrs. Jim (Velma) Penrod of Bluffton; Mildred Wolfe and Mrs. Leonard (Marcile) King of Decatur and Lois Kaufman of Leipsic, Ohio; and three brothers, Glen Manley, Kenneth Manley and Lester Manley, all of Decatur.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Richard Manley, and four sisters, Violet Roe, Mable Miller, Esther Cook and Jean Cook.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at Zwick & Jahn Funeral Home in Decatur, with Deloris Rayle officiating and burial in Tricker Cemetery.

Calling at the funeral home will be from 2 to 7 p.m. today and from 11 a.m. until time of services on Sunday.

Preferred memorials are to Family Hospice of Northeast Indiana and Chalet Village Activity Fund.

Contributed by Karin King