

May 9, 1907 newspaper clipping from the Geneva Library, Adams County, IN.

"Mrs. Anna Barbara Ray, died Saturday morning in the home of Jacob Martz, west of town in West Geneva, after a long suffering with paralysis. The interment took place in the Tricker graveyard last Monday. She was about 62 years of age and had six children, of whom five are still living and all are married. Those attending the funeral were Mr. & Mrs. A. W Holmes, Mr. & Mrs. L. P. Ray, of Portland, Mrs. G. H. Barling and daughter of near Blaine, also John W. Holmes, of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. William Ray, of Berne. The funeral was band? was from the Salem Methodist Church."

Contributed by E. K. Miller