

The Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Wednesday evening, April 15, 1903

DIED THIS MORNING

Henry Myers of Blue Creek Township is Dead

He Was an Enterprising and Successful Well-Known Farmer

Henry Myers of Blue Creek Township died at nine o'clock this morning after a long illness with kidney trouble. The deceased was one of the most progressive residents of Blue Creek Township. He was also generally known throughout the county and as greatly admired and respected. Mr. Myers was a native of Hanover, Germany, being born there December 24, 1838. He emigrated to America in 1854, and after landing in New York City, remained there for a year and a half. He came to this county in 1858 and for five years operated a grist mill at Pleasant Mills. He was married to Barbara Schrank in 1860 and to this union there were born ten children, eight of whom are still living. Since 1863 he has been resident of Blue Creek Tp. where he owns a fine farm of 120 acres.