

LAUTZENHEISER

DECATUR - Jesse E. Lautzenheiser, 72, died about 8 am Monday in the Adams County Memorial Hospital after an illness since October. He had been hospitalized 18 days.

Mr. Lautzenheiser was born in Blue Creek Township, moving to this city in 1932 after retiring from farming. He was a member of the Decatur Church of God.

Surviving are the widow, Cora; two sons, Verl Lautzenheiser, Washington Township, and Chester Lautzenheiser, Glendora, Calif.; four grandchildren; two brothers, John Lautzenheiser, Ohio City, O., and Fred Lautzenheiser, Blue Creek Township and two sisters, Mrs. Cloyd Byer, Wren, O., and Mrs. Ralph Bollinger, Willshire, O.

Services will be conducted at 2 pm Wednesday in the Zwick Funeral Home, the Rev. Huston Bever Jr. officiating. Burial will be in Spring Hill Cemetery, near Berne. Friends may call at the funeral home.

Journal-Gazette, Fort Wayne, IN; 3-1-1960, Pg. 17

Contributed by Jim Cox