

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; no date on newspaper (d. 12 Jan 1929)

JOSEPH MALONY IS BURIED TODAY

Funeral Services Held at Spring Hill Church for Decatur Man

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Spring Hill Methodist church for Joseph O. Malony, 60, who died at his home in the west part of Decatur Saturday morning. Death was due to complications. The Rev. Mr. Clauson, pastor of the Spring Hill church, and the Rev. M. W. Sunderman, of the Evangelical church of this city, had charge of the services.

Joseph Orlando Malony was born in Blue Creek township, December 14, 1868. He was the son of Robert and Kiziah Malony. In early life, he united in marriage with Ida Bell Feasel and to this union two sons were born, Charles Malony and Homer C. Malony, both of this city. Mrs. Malony died October 10, 1919.

In 1921, Mr. Malony was united in marriage to Cora A. King. Surviving, besides the two sons, are the widow, two foster sons, Leo King of Fort Wayne and Eugene Brown, at home; a sister, Mrs. Theodore Barr, of near Chattanooga, Ohio; a half sister, Mrs. Paul Larne of Los Angeles, Cal., the foster parents Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Waggoner of Monroe, and two grandchildren.

Mr. Malony was a farmer for years and about five years ago he took a position with the Sinclair Refining Company with headquarters in Decatur. Since that time he had resided in this city.