

Luella D. Graves Morgan passed from this world into eternal life at 3:28 p.m. on June 08, 2010. She was born in Allen County, IN on September 29, 1910 to the late Scott & Rose (Ambrose) Graves. She married Charles H. Morgan on December 26, 1931; he preceded her in death April 21, 1980. She was a native of Whitley Co. and was a lifelong resident of Decatur.

Luella was a 50 year member of The First Presbyterian Church in Decatur. She was also a member of the American Legion Post 43 Ladies Auxiliary Sewing Circle. She and her late husband Charles H. Morgan served for numerous years as the matron and superintendent of the Adams County Farm, until their retirement. They spent many happy days together in this mutual effort for the citizens of Adams County.

She is survived by a son Richard (Linda) Morgan of DeRidder, LA; a daughter Ruth J. (Carlton) Worthman of Ossian, IN; a special daughter-in-law Pat (Morgan) Carpenter; 12 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by two sons Leon W. Morgan and Paul E. Morgan and a granddaughter Vickie Kline.

Funeral service will be held at 7:00 pm Friday, June 11, 2010 at Haggard & Sefton Funeral Home with visitation prior from 5:00-7:00 pm. Pastor Marcia Cline will be officiating and burial will be on Saturday, June 12, 2010 at 10:30 am at Springhill/Backesto Cemetery.

Memorials are to First Presbyterian Church or American Legion Auxiliary.

The family would like express their gratitude to the staff of Woodcrest Nursing Center and the Adams Memorial Hospital for their many acts of kindness and abiding care.

Haggard - Sefton & Hirschy Funeral Home online obit (accessed 9/10/2013)