

Fort Wayne News, Allen County, Indiana; July 19, 1915

(Special correspondence)

DECATUR NEWS

While wading in Blue creek, north of Berne, this morning, Milo Reynolds, seventeen-year-old son of Mrs. Bessie Reynolds, stepped into ten feet of water and was drowned. He was accompanied by four other companions, but as none of the boys could swim, they could not assist him. Late this afternoon, the body had not been recovered.

Contributed by Karin King