

Evening Banner, Wells County, Indiana; Wednesday, January 8, 1919

MONROE LADY DIES FROM INFLUENZA

Mrs. Carrie Andrews Was Life-Long Resident of Adams County

Mrs. Carrie Andrews, aged forty-five, wife of Edward Andrews, living a mile and a half northeast of Monroe, passed away Monday evening at 6:30 from influenza. Mr. Andrews, who had been ill of the flu, has recovered.

The deceased was a life-long resident of Adams county. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, and was born August 30, 1873.

The husband and five children include her immediate family. The children are Floyd, Pierceton; Leslie, Tiro, Ohio; Dwight, a soldier in France; Harod [sic] and Cecil, at home. Surviving members of her parental family are four brothers and four sisters.

She was a member of the Monroe Methodist church and the minister of that town officiated at the funeral Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock from the home.

Contributed by drbuck