

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Thursday, April 22, 1909

DIED OF OLD AGE

The Earthly Services of Another Pioneer, Mrs. Jane Andrews, Are Over Lived At Monroe - Is Survived by Six Children and One Brother
Funeral on Friday

Mrs. Jane Andrews of Monroe, passed into the land of eternity at nine o'clock last evening. Her sufferings have ended and she has gone to her reward. She was a woman of many splendid traits, a christian lady, a loving and kind mother and one of those pioneers who helped to make this county one of the best in the state in every way. Her death was due to old age. She had been in good health until last summer, when the death of her son Hazel, caused her much worry and her vitality seemed to go rapidly from then on. The relapse came about three weeks ago, the sands of life slipping gradually away until she fell asleep. She was born in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, May 30, 1833, her age at death being seventy-six years, ten months and twenty one days. She came to the county when a small girl and has since lived here. Her husband, Lewis Andrews, died in 1898. She was the mother of nine children, three of who, two daughters, Josephine Buhler and Rachael Van Camp, and one son Hazel, have preceded her in death. The children living are Mrs. Martha Dentner, Mrs. Inez Miller, Mrs. Hattie Mills, J. W. Andrews, Mrs. Addie Hahnert and O. P. Andrews, all of Monroe. One brother, James Quinn, of Bloomington, Ind., also survives. The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock from the Monroe Methodist church, of which she was a member. Interment at the Ray cemetery.

Decatur Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Thursday, May 6, 1909

James W. Andrews, admr. of Jane Andrews estate, filed an inventory which was approved.