

Fort Wayne Journal Gazette, Allen County, Indiana; Sunday, Nov. 17, 1918

BOOTH

DECATUR, Ind., Nov 16 - Mrs. Edward Booth, a well known and prominent lady, residing four miles south of the city, died at the family home at 6 o'clock this morning following an extended illness of several months' duration from a complication of diseases. She had been a resident of Adams county all her life, having been born in Washington township, October 6, 1858, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Andrews, being sixty years old on her last birth anniversary. Of her immediate family, a husband and one daughter, Mrs. Sarah A. Busche, survive. Brothers and sisters are: Marion Andrews, Washington township; Mrs. Thomas Baltzell, Decatur; Mrs. George McKean, Granite City, Illinois. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Methodist church at Monroe, Rev. Krider officiating. Interment will be in the Ray cemetery.

Fort Wayne News & Sentinel, Allen County, Indiana; Nov. 18, 1918

FUNERAL OF MRS. LAVINA BOOTH

(Special to the News)

DECATUR, Ind. Nov. 18 - Funeral services for Mrs. Lavina Booth, wife of Edward Booth, living near Monroe, were held this afternoon from the Monroe Methodist church, with the Rev. Mr. Krider officiating. Her death occurred following an extended illness. She was 60 years of age. Her near relatives include the sisters: Marian Andrews, Mrs. Thomas Baltzell, this city; Mrs. George McKean, Granite City, Ill.

Both contributed by Karin King