

Journal Gazette, Fort Wayne, Indiana; Friday, January 7, 1944

Dennis Brandyberry, 58, a custodian at the Harrison Hill school and a local resident the last 25 years, died unexpectedly Thursday morning at 3 o'clock at his home at 4016 Lafayette street. He was born at Decatur.

Surviving are the wife, Lillian; two sons in the U. S. Army, John at Camp Peary, W. Va., and Doyle, in Alaska; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Bradley of Hastings, Neb.; four grandchildren; and five sisters, Mrs. Zeltha McDowell and Mrs. Nora Fleck, both of Fort Wayne, Mrs. J. N. Berkhead of Monroe, Mrs. Blanche Conner of Winchester and Mrs. Dollie Duke of Albany.

Friends may call at Mungovan & Sons' mortuary.