

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Friday, November 2, 1951

Floyd Brandyberry Dies This Morning - Funeral Services Sunday Afternoon

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Monroe Friends church for Floyd Edgar Brandyberry, 66, who died in his home at 3:15 a.m. today.

A life-long resident of the county, Mr. Brandyberry was born near Monroe March 11, 1885, the son of Amos and Clinda Brandyberry.

Brandyberry, who was married in 1921 to the former Josephine Carens, retired three and one-half years ago from the Decatur General Electric company where he was employed.

In addition to his wife and mother, Brandyberry is survived by two sons, Howard of New Castle, and Klesson of Monroe; two daughters, Mrs. Helen Highlen, of Decatur and Mrs. Richard Anderson, of Monroe; one brother, Otis, also of Monroe, and three sisters, Mrs. Ethel Branch, of Decatur, Mrs. Otho Lobenstein, of Monroe, and Mrs. Frank Hartnett, of Scottsville, Mich.

The Rev. Vernon Riley, of the Monroe Friends church, assisted by the Rev. W. L. Hall, of the Monroe Methodist church, will officiate at the funeral services. Burial will be in the Ray cemetery, one and one-half miles west of Monroe.

The body was taken to the Lobenstein funeral home in Monroe where it will remain until time for the funeral. Visitors may call at the funeral home after noon Saturday.

Contributed by drbuck