

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, IN; April 1919

CHILD IS DEAD

Doyle, Five-year-old Son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brown Succumbed After

A Short Illness Of Few Hours

Death Due To Hemorrhage of the Brain

Funeral Friday

Doyle F. Brown, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brown, living three miles south of this city, died last night at ten o'clock from hemorrhage of the brain. The child had been ill only a few hours. Yesterday afternoon he complained of a severe pain in the head and the death ensued a few hours later.

He was born May 31, 1914, and would have been five years of age next month.

He is survived by the parents, a sister, Esther A., Harry, aged one year.

The funeral service will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock from the Winchester church with interment in the Ray cemetery.

Contributed by Jacquie Eisenhut