

News Banner, Wells County, Indiana; Jan 13, 1979

MOTHER OF WELLS RESIDENTS DIES AT AGE OF 91

Mother of Forrest DeBolt of Bluffton and Mrs. Howard (Florine) Bowman of Keystone, Mrs. Estella DeBolt, 91, of Decatur died at 1:20 a.m. today at Decatur Community Care Center, where she had been a resident two years.

A member of the Bethel United Brethren Church, Mrs. DeBolt was born March 6, 1887 in Adams County to Frank and Anna Tinkham.

In addition to the son in Bluffton and daughter at Keystone, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Grace Swoveland of Boca Raton, Fla., a sister, Mrs. Julie Campbell of the Decatur Community Care Center, a brother Nolan Whitehurst of Fort Wayne, 14 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Calling will be after 2 p.m. Sunday at the Zwick Funeral Home in Decatur with services there at 11 a.m. Monday in charge of Rev. Sylvester Martin. Burial will be in the Ray Cemetery near Coppess Corner.

Contributed by Penny Baughman North