

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; 7 August 1986

A Monroe native, Glenn E. Essex, 56, of Fort Wayne, died in his home at 6 a.m. today following a long illness.

He was born on May 11, 1930 to Clifford and Martha Essex and was a retired truck driver, working 30 years for Commercial Motor Freight of Indiana.

Survivors include a son, Don Essex of Fort Wayne; three daughters: Pamela Gates of Merrillville, and Diana and Glenna Essex of Fort Wayne; a brother, Lester Essex of Tri Lakes, Indiana; two sisters: Georgianna Essex of Oceanside, California and Lois Arends of 309 S. 11th St.; and two grandchildren.

Private graveside services will be held at the Monroe Cemetery on Saturday, August 16. Preferred memorials are gifts to the Parkview Hospital Oncology Center in Fort Wayne.

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Aug 11, 1986

GLENN E. ESSEX

The family of the late Glenn E. Essex, 56, Fort Wayne, has scheduled a memorial service this Saturday, August 16, at 12:30 p.m. in Christian Praise and Fellowship church, 4833 S. Harrison St., Fort Wayne.

There will also be a graveside service in Monroe Cemetery at 2 p.m. Saturday. Mr. Essex died last Thursday at home after a lengthy illness.

Contributed by Deb Curry