

Logansport Pharos Tribune, Logansport, Indiana; August 16, 1949

STATE'S POLIO SPREAD OVER 60 COUNTIES

Two More Deaths Raise Indiana Toll To 46, Cases Reach 440

INDIANAPOLIS (UP) - Polio yesterday spread to the 60th Hoosier county as the state board of health recorded 440 cases and 46 deaths.

The latest fatalities were those of an Adams county man at Fort Wayne and a former Grant county woman in California.

Ross Gunder, 27, Monroe, at Methodist hospital, Fort Wayne. His death was Adams county's fourth for the year.

(cut off)

Contributed by Karin King