

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Wednesday, November 9, 1910

Funeral Friday

Funeral of Samuel Johnson, Late Pioneer of Monroe, to be Held at the M. E. Church - At Monroe by Rev. Tom Wyer and Rev. McNary Civil War Veteran.

With his casket draped with the silken folds of the flag for which he fought, the body of Samuel Johnson, the late pioneer of Monroe, and veteran of the Civil War, will lie in state at his home in that town until Friday morning at 10 o'clock, when the last earthly service will be conducted at the M. E. church at that place. The services will be conducted by Rev. Tom Wyer of Lima, Ohio, pastor of the Winchester U. B. church, and he will be assisted by Rev. McNary of the Monroe M. E. church.

Mr. Johnson, whose death was reported in last evening's Democrat, occurred Tuesday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock from paralysis, was born in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, August 16, 1841, the son of John and Isabel Johnson. When quite young he came with his parents to this county, residing in Monroe and Washington townships.

He was married in young manhood to Miss Susannah Everhardt, who survives. Of their four children, three are surviving. They are: Mrs. Lyda May Watkins, Marion and John Johnson. He also leaves two brothers: James Johnson of Monroe, Joseph L. Johnson of Pennsylvania; two half-brothers, Noah and Levi; two half-sisters, Mary Uhric of Monroe and Sarah Liza Uhric of Dunkirk.

The deceased was nearly seventy years of age, and his long life was one of great usefulness.

He was a veteran of the Civil war, serving three years in defense of his country.