

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Friday, March 23, 1945

Frank L. Johnston Dies This Morning
Funeral Services Monday Afternoon

Frank L. Johnston, 60, well home, 803 W. Monroe street, of a at 1:30 o'clock this morning at his home 803 W. Monroe street, of a heart ailment.

Mr. Johnston, who built the new barns at the Adams county home, was stricken with a heart attack three weeks ago.

A native of this county, Mr. Johnston was born in Washington township, Oct. 6, 1884, a son of James S. and Mylinda Johnston.

He was married to Miss Emma Wolfe. Surviving besides the widow are nine children: Mrs. Goldie Strieby and Mrs. Nellie Alspach of Key West, Fla., Mrs. Dorothy Robinson and Mrs. Mary Colter of this city; Cpl. Ollie Johnston, U. S. army, stationed in India; Eileen, Donna, Humbert and Merlin at home.

Brothers and sisters who survive are, Cyrus Johnston of Morgantown, W. Va., Samuel of Rome City; Mrs. Eliza Hahnert of Monroe.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence and 2:30 at the Nuttman Avenue United Brethren church, of which Mr. Johnston was a trustee. Interment will be in the Ray cemetery, west of Monroe.

The body will be returned from the Gillig and Doan funeral home to the Johnston residence Saturday, where friends may call after 7 o'clock in the evening.