Fatal Injury

Jas. F. Johnson, Near Monroe, Succumbed to Injury This Morning

Died at 8:04 O'clock - Was Hurt Two Weeks Ago

Was Sixty-eight Years of Age.

James F. Johnson, sixty-eight, a prominent farmer living two and a half miles southwest of Monroe, died this morning at 8:04 o'clock. Mr. Johnson had been in poor health from stomach trouble for a long time, but the immediate cause of his death was the injury sustained a week ago last Thursday. He was hauling corn fodder and was thrown from the load when a wheel struck a rut. One of his hips was dislocated and he suffered internal injuries, causing his death.

Mr. Johnson was born in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, and had he lived until next August 14 would have been sixty-nine years old. He was a son of John Johnson and came to this county with his parents, when he was about two years old.

He leaves the following children: Frank Johnson of near Monroe; Samuel, of Michigan; Mrs. Nettie Urich, Jasonville, Ind.; Eliza Hahnert, of near Monroe; Cyrus, of Morgantown, W. Va.

A brother, Joe, lives in Pennsylvania. There are half brothers and sisters as follows: Noah, Levi, Mrs. Mary Urich, of Monroe; Matilda McGowan, Miamisburg, Ohio; Sarah Urich, Dunkirk.

The funeral will be Friday afternoon, leaving the house at 1:30 for the Winchester church, where the Rev. Kindle will officiate. Interment in the Ray cemetery.

Note: Stone says James S. & Malinda Johnston
