

MILDRED L. KELLER.

Mildred L. KELLER, 102, of 1300 Mercer Ave., Decatur, (formerly of Monroe) died Sunday, 1 November 2015, at Adams Woodcrest, Decatur.

She was born 11 October 1913, in Adams County, Indiana, to the late Lawrence H. and Lena S. (COOK) STRICKLER. She married Hubert W. KELLER on 1 February 1936, and he died on 27 December 2002.

Mrs. KELLER, was a homemaker and had worked for 21 years in housekeeping at Adams County Hospital. She was a lifelong member of the Decatur Church of God of which her grandparents, Elmore and Alice COOK, were founding members.

Surviving are a son, Robert (Judy) KELLER of Decatur: two daughters, Donna (Jerry) GERBER of Decatur, and Lois (Tom) BRUNSTRUP of Monroe, Indiana: nine grandchildren: 20 great-grandchildren (one due in February): and nine great-great-grandchildren.

She was also preceded in death by a brother, Lester STRICKLER: a sister in infancy: and a great-great-grandson.

Funeral services were held Thursday, 5 November in Decatur Church of God. Burial was in Ray Cemetery, in Monroe.

Contributed by Sharon Schaffner