

Berne Witness, Adams Co, IN; Friday, March 29, 1941

George Austin "Otto" Ray, 69, died at his home in Geneva on Thursday. He was engaged in farming and teaming. The children surviving are Clyde of Convoy, Ohio; Marion of Muncie, Jude of Eaton; Mrs. Robert Passwater of Ft. Wayne; Mrs. Clyde Lough of Geneva and 12 grandchildren.

*****

Evening News Banner, Wells County, Indiana; Friday, March 28, 1941

GEORGE A. RAY DIES AT HOME AT GENEVA

Death Occurs Thursday and Funeral Services Will be Held Saturday

George Austin (Ott) Ray, 69, died Thursday at his home at Geneva.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Laura Ray; three sons, Clyde Ray of Convoy, O., and Jude and Marion Ray of Muncie; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Lough of Geneva and Mrs. Ellen Passwater of Fort Wayne; 12 grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Ella Fitch of Auburn and Mrs. Pearl Lewellen of Bay City, Mich.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the Geneva Methodist Church with Rev. Fawns officiating. Burial will be in Ray cemetery at Monroe.

Contributed by Karin King