

Decatur Library, Decatur Adams Co., IN; Obit Book # 7, Page 165, Col. 1 and 2
Monday 26 September 1988--probably the Decatur Daily Democrat

Wilda P RUPERT, 74, Monroe, died at 1:38 this morning in St. Joseph Medical Center, Fort Wayne, after being a patient there one week. She was seriously ill for two weeks.

She was born in Blue Creek Township, on 14 October 1913, to A. B. and Clara DAVIS-RILEY, and married Glen A RUPERT on 27 February 1933. He died 18 July of this year.

Surviving are five daughters; Mrs. Leroy (Pauline) KOLTER, route 2, Decatur and Mrs. Gene (Shirley) HURST, Mrs. Ray (Joan) WYATT, Mrs. William (Gloria) KOHLI, and Mrs. Tim (Deborah) AGLER, all of Fort Wayne; 12 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; and four step great-grandchildren.

A sister Ruth BROWN; a son Richard RUPERT; a great-grandson; and nine brothers; Rev. Vernon RILEY, and True, Alton, Dale, Ree, Nolan, Wilmer, Norris, and Merle RILEY are deceased.

Funeral services are at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Monroe United Methodist Church, with Rev. Jual EVANS officiating.

Burial will be in Ray Cemetery, Monroe.

Visiting hours at Zwick-Sefton and Jahn Funeral Home are 2-9 p.m Tuesday and 10 a.m. -noon Wednesday. There is also visitation from 1-2 p.m. Wednesday at the church. Preferred memorials are of donor's choice.

Contributed by Sharon Schaffner