Services Monday for Harvey Sells

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Monroe Methodist church for Harvey J. Sells, 77, of route 6, who died at Caylor Nickel Clinic in Bluffton Friday at 8:20 a.m., where he had been a patient for three weeks.

The son of T. Lacy and Hattie Hendricks Sells, he was born April 6, 1890 in Monroe township, Adams county, and was married Nov. 25, 1909 to Josephine Martz, who survives. A retired farmer, he lived his entire life in Adams county, and for many years has been a member of the Ray cemetery board. He was a member of the Monroe Methodist church.

In addition to the wife, survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Everett (Chrystal) Rice of route one, Monroe, and a foster son, Richard Stinnett, of Anaheim, Calif.; a brother, Grover Sells, of Greenville, O.; two grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Zwick Funeral home after 7 p.m. this evening. The body will lie in state at the church from 12:30 p.m. Monday until the time of the services.
