

SELLS FUNERAL TO BE TUESDAY

Monroe Woman Expires Saturday Afternoon; Heart Trouble, Cause

Mrs. Hattie H. Sells, 72, life long resident of Monroe died at her home in Monroe, Saturday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock from complications and heart trouble which developed from a broken hip she suffered last February. Mrs. Sells was bedfast until a few weeks ago when her condition seemed to be improved.

She was born at Monroe, December 2, 1857, the daughter of Bazzel and Mary Hendricks, both deceased. Her husband, Thomas Lacey Sells preceded her in death on February 19, 1891.

Surviving are three sons, Grover Sells of Greenville, Ohio; Jesse B. Sells of Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Harvey J. Sells of Detroit, Michigan; seven grand children (sic), Noel E. Sells, Glennice Sells, Lucile Sells, Helen Sells, Crystal Sells, Robert Oliver, and Harriet Oliver. A daughter and son preceded the deceased in death.

A brother, Jim A. Hendricks of Monroe, and a sister, Mrs. Minda B. Albaugh of Dennison, Ohio also survive.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Monroe for many years and was a prominent resident of that town.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock (C. S. T.) at the Methodist Episcopal church of Monroe, Rev. E. M. Foster of Monroeville and Rev. Zekiel, both former pastors of Monroe Methodist church, and Rev. Williams, the present pastor, will have charge of the services. Burial will be made in the Ray cemetery at Monroe.
