

ILL SHORT TIME

Death of Mrs. Rosetta Uhrick Springer Occurred This Morning
At Her Home
Husband Died Suddenly Four Month Ago - Funeral Thursday.

Surviving her husband, Lawrence Zachariah Springer, by barely four months, Mrs. Rosetta Uhrick Springer passed away this morning about 9:30 o'clock at her home in the south part of the city after a short illness dating from Thursday.

The death of Mr. Springer, who succumbed suddenly to heart trouble while on duty on the interurban force the latter part of August, together with the death of his wife today, leaves parentless two children, Russell and Glorina.

The deceased was the daughter of William J. Uhrick and was born May 21, 1886.

Surviving brothers and sisters are Nelson, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Grover, of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. William Richards, of this city, and Leona Smith, of Oklahoma.

The funeral will be held Thursday morning at ten o'clock from the United Brethren church.
