

RETIRED MINISTER'S SERVICE SUNDAY

The Rev. James H. Uhrick, 83, of 1232 1/2 W. Main St., died at 9:30 a.m. yesterday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Melvin Kohn, R. R. 3, Elwood.

A native of Monroe, he had lived in Fort Wayne since 1917 and was one of the founders of First Wesleyan Church. He served as its first pastor from 1929 to 1937. He was later employed at General Electric Co., retiring 18 years ago with 23 years of service.

Surviving in addition to the daughter are three grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and a niece, Mrs. Josephine Baumgartner, Decatur.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Sunday in Spring Street Wesleyan Church, the Rev. Lauren Crowe and the Rev. Paul McKinley officiating. Burial will be in Ray Cemetery, Monroe. Friends may call at C. M. Sloan & Sons Funeral Home after 7 p.m. today and at the church after 12:30 Sunday.

Decatur Daily Democrat, Decatur, Adams Co, IN; May 9, 1969

REV. JAMES UHRICK IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Rev. James H. Uhrick, 83, of 1232 1/2 West Main Street, Fort Wayne, a native of Monroe, died at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Melvin Kohn of Elwood route 3.

He had lived in Fort Wayne since 1917, and was one of the founders of First Wesleyan Methodist Church, now the Spring Street Wesleyan Church. He served as its first pastor from 1929 to 1937. He was later employed at General Electric Co., retiring 18 years ago after 23 years of service.

Surviving in addition to the daughter are three grandchildren, and a niece, Mrs. Josephine Baumgartner of Decatur.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Spring Street Wesleyan Church, with Rev. Lauren Crowe and Reb. Paul McKinley officiating. Burial will be in the Ray Cemetery, west of Monroe. Friends may call at the C. M. Sloan & Sons Funeral Home after 7 p.m today and at the church after 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Both contributed by Ed