

Gaylord L. Weaver, 78, 224 Hocker St., Monroe, who retired from the General Electric Co. after 26 1/2 years of service, died at 8:50 p.m. Thursday in Jay County Hospital, Portland, following an extended illness.

He was born in Adams County on Feb. 2, 1908, the son of Leon and Ida J. Bricker-Weaver, and was married Nov. 1, 1834, to Clarice Wilbur, who survives.

Also surviving are one son, Jim Weaver, route 1, Monroe; one daughter, Jean Hall, Monroe; four sisters, Mrs. Ralph (Elna) Bailey, Geneva; Mrs. Vic (Faye) Laux, Geneva; Mrs. Marvin (Maye) Stetler, Pleasant Mills; Mrs. Cecil Witsche, Knox; a brother, Clarence Weaver, Portland; two granddaughters and one great-granddaughter.

Private services will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. at Winteregg-Linn & Haggard Funeral Home, Rev. Jual Evans officiating. Friends may call from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. Saturday. Memorials are to the Diabetes Foundation

Contributed by Penny Baughman North - no source listed