

MR. URICK DEAD

Prominent Adams County Man Passed Away This Morning at 6:30 - Suffered A Stroke - Of Paralysis Tuesday Noon - Death Direct Result of Bright's Disease.

At 6:30 o'clock this morning, Daniel Urick, a prominent farmer of Adams county, residing two miles south and one mile west of Monroe, passed away, death being the direct result of Bright's disease. Although having been afflicted with the disease for some time, Mr. Urick was not compelled to take to his bed until about a month ago. Last Sunday the deceased suffered a slight stroke of paralysis and on Tuesday noon a repetition of the stroke in a heavier and more severe form attacked him. The deceased never fully recovered from the last stroke, which hastened his demise. Mr. Urick was well advanced in years, there being some dispute as to whether he was eighty-four or ninety-one years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Urick and practically his entire life was spent in Adams county. Eight children survive the loss of their father, there being five girls and three boys. Four brothers, Joseph, Samuel, John and Jacob, are also still living. Mr. Urick was a civil war veteran and was a member of the local Sam Henry post of the G. A. R.

The funeral services will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the Winchester church, south of Monroe, and interment will be made in the Smith cemetery.
