

Adams County (IN) Historical Museum Scrapbook
(Handwritten: Monday, March 30, 1936)

(PHOTO)

WHITE PLAGUE TAKES LIFE OF REV. CONRAD
Rev. J.L. Conrad, 43 Dies at Irene Byron Sanitarium
FUNERAL HELD THIS AFTERNOON

Rev. John L. Conrad aged 43, former pastor of the Cross Reformed church here, died at 1 o'clock Saturday morning at the Irene Byron Sanitarium north of Fort Wayne. Death was caused by pulmonary tuberculosis, from which Rev. Conrad had suffered for several years. Rev. Conrad's condition first became critical Sunday one week ago, and since then he weakened rapid until his death.

Rev. Conrad became pastor of the local church in 1929, preaching his first sermon on Dec 1, 1929. He preached a trial sermon at the local church Sunday, Sept 29, 1929, and was given a unanimous call. Rev. Conrad succeeded Rev. C.W. H. Saurwein as pastor of the Berne church.