

News-Sentinel, The (Fort Wayne, IN) - Monday, February 21, 2005

FRANKLIN D. HORMANN, 71, a resident of rural Fort Wayne and the Hoagland area most of his life, died Saturday, Feb. 19, 2005, 8:55 p.m., at Village of Heritage Nursing Center, Monroeville. Born Feb. 15, 1934, in Allen County, he was the son of the late Lawrence C. Hormann and Mathilda G. Schroeder. He married Lora L. Selking on June 6, 1954, at Bethlehem Lutheran Church. He was a member of Emanuel Lutheran Church, New Haven, Evangelism Committee at the church, H.A.A.A. and Thrivent Financial. He was a truck driver for CWC Logistics Trucking for 12 years; and a Lift Truck Mechanic and overhead door technician for 40 years. Surviving are his wife, Lora L. Hormann of Monroeville; sons, James A. (Kathy) Hormann of Hoagland, Daniel L. Hormann of Fort Wayne and Roger L. (Lisa) Hormann of Poe-Hoagland; daughters, Mrs. Thomas (Dianne K.) Kneller of New Haven and Donna J. Hormann of Fort Wayne; and two granddaughters, Rachel and Josie Horman. He was preceded in death by one brother, Willard Hormann; and one grandson, Ryan Hormann. Service is 2 p.m. Wednesday at Emanuel Lutheran Church, New Haven, where visitation is one hour prior to service. Visitation also from noon to 4 and 6 to 9 p.m. Tuesday at Zwick & Jahn Funeral Home, Jacobs Chapel, Monroeville. Burial at St. John Lutheran Church Cemetery, Bingen. Preferred memorials to Emanuel Lutheran Church, Worship For Shut-Ins, or donor's favorite charity.

Contributed by Jane Edson