

William H. Rodenbeck, 69, died suddenly at his home in Root township, Adams county, five miles north of Decatur Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Rodenbeck several months ago suffered an ... of influenza, since which he had not been in good health. ...afternoon he was stricken ...with a heart attack, his death following immediately. He was born in Preble township, Adams county, where he lived until his marriage when he moved to Root township, having resided there since. He was a member of St John's Lutheran church on the Decatur road. Surviving are one daughter, Miss Paula, and one son, William, Jr. at home; four sisters, Mrs. Fred Fuelling, Mrs. William Westerman, Mrs. Fred Westerman and Mrs. Bernadine Toensing, all of this city. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at an hour to be announced later.

Fort Wayne Journal Gazette, Allen County, IN; May 29, 1929

Contributed by Jim Cox

(Library copy had a spot where several words could not be read)