

Berne Witness, Adams County, Indiana; Friday, June 5, 1942

FRED BLOMENBERG DIES LAST NIGHT

84-Year-Old Life-Long Adams County Resident Is Dead

Decatur, June 5 - Fred Blomenberg, 84, lifelong resident of Adams county, died Thursday night in the Adams County Memorial hospital, Decatur, following an illness of four weeks. He had made his home with a son, Martin, in Preble township. Mr. Blomenberg was a member of the Friedheim Lutheran church.

Surviving besides the son are another son, August of near Decatur; four daughters, Mrs. G. W. Buuck, Mrs. Otto Schoenherr and Mrs. Arnold Reinking, all of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. T. M. Wiggam, Indianapolis; 15 grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and a brother, Christ Blomenberg, Fort Wayne.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence and 2:30 o'clock at the Friedheim Lutheran church, Rev. Walter Leucks officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Contributed by Karin King