

Gilbert P. Blomenberg, 94, of Seward, NE. died May 13, 2012 in York, NE. Gilbert was born Jan. 20,1918 in Fort Wayne, IN.

Gilbert married Marie Koch Aug. 29, 1943 in Columbus, IN. He graduated from high school and college at Concordia College (Concordia University) River Forest, IL. as a Lutheran School Teacher.

Gilbert received a MA in Education from Indiana University, Bloomington, IN. He was a teacher and principal of St. Peter's Lutheran School Columbus, IN. In 1960 accepted a call to be a professor at Concordia Teachers College, now Concordia University in Seward. NE.

Gilbert was a member of Phi Delta Kappa, Seward Kiwanis and Kiwanis Ki-tones.

Gilbert survivors are: sons and wives, Dr. Theodore (Saundra) Blomenberg of Decatur, IN., John (Susan) Blomenberg of Seward, NE., Dr. Daniel (Deanna) Blomenberg of Norfolk, NE.; daughters, Dr. Paula Blomenberg (Charles Rager) of Tampa, FL., Rhoda (Dr. Dominick) Toulouse of Seattle, WA., Andrea (Drew) Woodburn of York, NE.; daughter-in-law, Janeen Blomenberg of Columbus, IN.; 29 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Gilbert was preceded in death by: parents, Martin and Esther (Preuss) Blomenberg; wife, Marie Blomenberg; son, James Blomenberg; and daughter, Sarah Blomenberg.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m., Saturday, May 19, 2012 at St. John Lutheran Church, Seward, NE. with Pastor Scott Bruick officiating.

Interment will be Tuesday, May 22, 2012 at Zion Friedheim Lutheran Cemetery, Decatur, Ind.

Published York (NE.) News Times 05/17/2012

Contributed by CPR