

Ernest Doehrman, 57, died unexpectedly at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at his home on the Wayne trace, five miles east of the city following a day's illness. Born in Adams county, he came to Allen county to live three years ago. He had been employed by the International Harvester company for the last 10 years and was a member of Zion's Lutheran church at Friedheim. Survivors include the widow, Minnie; five daughters, Mrs. Louis Bultemeier of Adams county, Mrs. August Wiegman and the Misses Luella and Hilda Doehrman of this city, and Mrs. Lee Fleming of Decatur; four sons, Arthur of this city, Rudolph of Detroit, Gerherdt of this city and Ralph Doehrman at home; nine grandchildren; five brothers, William of this city, Fred of New Haven, Henry of West Plains, Mo., Adolph of Adams county and Conrad Doehrman of Hoagland and three sisters, Mrs. Louis Kleine of Woodburn, Mrs. Edward Marhenke of Hoagland and Mrs. Joseph Carrier of this city.

Fort Wayne Journal Gazette (IN) - Sunday, May 26, 1935

Contributed by Jim Cox