Nearly Ninety Years of Age
Was George Cline Who Died This Morning

George Cline, one of the best known citizens of Root township and perhaps one of the best known in Adams county, died Wednesday at the home of his daughter Mrs. A. R. Wolfe, east of this city, after an illness of several months' duration, death resulting from old age and a complication of diseases. He was eighty nine years old and had practically made his home in this county all his life and was held in high esteem by his neighbors and fellowmen. The funeral services will be held Friday at ten o'clock, sun time, at the Union Chapel church and interment will be made in the Alpha cemetery.
