

Decatur Democrat, Adams County, IN; no day, 1906

SUDDEN DEATH

Mrs. George Cline a Victim of Heart Failure

Died at early hour today

Retired last evening in good health, but became fatally ill at midnight

Mrs. Lucinda Cline, aged sixty-five years, one of the old pioneers of this county, died this morning at the home of her husband, George Cline, three miles east of the city at three o'clock a.m. Her illness was of very short duration, death resulting from heart trouble. Mrs. Cline yesterday did her usual day's work, including her household duties and last evening after her supper work, sat down and chatted with her husband until bed time, apparently at this time being in the best of health. About midnight she took sick and in an hour lay cold in death. She leaves a husband and two sons, James Harkless, of Paulding, O., and Charles Harkless, of Berne, Ind. The funeral will be held Friday, leaving the home at one o'clock. Services will be held at the Alpha church.