

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Monday February 7, 1927

SARAH REYNOLDS CALLED BY DEATH

Pioneer Resident of Decatur Dies At Her Home Here Sunday Morning

Sarah A. Reynolds, 81, died at her home on High street at 8:45 o'clock Sunday morning. Senility was the cause of death.

Mrs. Reynolds was a daughter of Joel and Polly Ann Roe, and was born in Adams county, June 1, 1845. She had resided in Adams county her entire life. Her husband, the late Elisha Reynolds, was one of the pioneer residents of Decatur. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds were married October 19, 1865.

Surviving are three children, Mrs. William Rodenbush, of Willshire, O., Lewis and Joel Renolds, of this city; two brothers, Nathan and Caleb Roe, of Adams county; and one sister, Suzan Gelterwood, of Dayton, O. Four children are deceased.

Funeral services will be held at the Church of God on Cleveland street, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Bragg officiating. Burial will be made in the Reynolds cemetery.