MRS. APPELMAN DIES SUDDENLY

Wife of Andrew Appelman Dies at Decatur Hospital

Decatur, Dec. 1 - Mrs. Alice Kriegel Appelman, 32, prominent Decatur lady, and wife of City Councilman Andrew Appelman, died unexpectedly at the Adams county memorial hospital Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Appelman had been ill for some time and was taken to the hospital November 8 for treatment. Last Friday, a major operation was performed upon her, from which she was believed to have been recovering satisfactorily. Tuesday morning she appeared to be in exceptionally good health almost up until the moment of her death. Death was caused by cerebral embolism.

She was born in Celina, Mercer county, Ohio, April 15, 1906, the daughter of Adam and Sarah Kriegel. After the death of her mother she came to this city in 1922 and resided with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Lose, until her marriage to Mr. Appelman.

She was the mother of three daughters, Myrian, Norma Jean and Patricia. Surviving besides the husband and the daughters are two sisters, Mrs. Charles Lose and Mrs. Martin Braun, both of Decatur; and four brothers, Joseph, Raymond and Carl Kriegel, all of Lima, Ohio and Frank of Galion, Ohio.
