AREA MAN DIES IN CAR-TRAIN CRASH IN AUSTRALIA

DECATUR - James B. Becker, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Becker of Rt. 6, Decatur, was killed Tuesday in a car-train accident near Woomera, Australia.

Becker, a computer scientist for Aero Jet Corp. in California, was in Australia on a six-week testing program for his company.

He died of internal and other injuries one hour after the accident.

Becker studied at University of Dayton and University of Southern California.

Surviving besides the parents are three sisters, a brother and the maternal grandmother.

The body will be returned to Gillig, Doan & Sefton Funeral Home in Decatur.
