

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Jan. 14, 2004

Mary A. Beckmeyer, 91, who lived almost all of her life in Decatur, died at 8:30 p.m. Monday in Northwest Manor Nursing Care Center at Indianapolis. Funeral arrangements are pending at Haggard and Sefton Funeral Home, Decatur.

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Jan. 15, 2004

The obituary notice in Wednesday's edition of the Daily Democrat for Mary A. Beckmeyer, 91, incorrectly listed her maiden name as Case when it was Gase.

Mrs. Mary A. Beckmeyer
December 12, 1912 - January 12, 2004

Mary A. Beckmeyer, 91, passed away Monday, January 12, 2004.

Mrs. Mary A. Beckmeyer, a lifetime resident of Adams County, passed away Monday at 8:30pm at the Northwest Manor Nursing Care Center in Indianapolis, IN. She was born on December 12, 1912 to George L. and Johanna (Bogner) Gase in Adams County, IN. She later married Lawrence Beckmeyer on June 25, 1935. (He passed away on November 25, 1997.)

Mary was a homemaker and a member of the St. Mary of the Assumption Catholic Church in Decatur, In. She also was a member of the Women of St. Mary.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. James (Mary Frances) Divita, Indianapolis, IN; Her Sister, Agnes Rindler, Burkettsville, OH and 4 Grandchildren.

Mrs. Beckmeyer was preceeded in death by 9 brothers and 1 Sister.

Funeral Information

Visitation is 4-8pm Thursday, January 15, 2004 at Haggard and Sefton Funeral Home, Decatur, IN with a 4:30pm Vigil Service. There will be a 9:30 am Prayer Service at Haggard and Sefton, Friday, January 16, 2004 followed by a mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 am at St. Mary of the Assumption Catholic Church, Decatur, Indiana.

Donations Information

All donations will be given to the St. Mary Improvement Fund or to the Masses.

Haggard & Sefton Funeral Home online obits
Contributed by Karin King