

Daniel Costello, 53, Bryant, died Saturday afternoon at Jay County Hospital.

He was a construction worker and truck driver.

Born January 18, 1939, in Monroe, he was the son of Henry and Luisa (Jauregui) Costello. He was a member of the St. Mary's of the Assumption Catholic Church in Decatur.

He was married to Deanne Johnson, who survives.

Surviving besides his wife are three son, Danny R. Costello, Bluffton, Anthony Joseph I and Anthony Joseph II, both of Bryant; two stepsons, Kevin D. Burdette, Decatur and Christopher R. Burdette, Bryant; four daughters, Felicia Costello, Bluffton, Rhonda Costello and Jennifer Vaughn, both of Bryant, and Barbara Weiland, Decatur; four brothers, Henry, Jesse, Anthony and Daniel Costello, all of Decatur; five sisters, Jennie Corral, Lupe Vergara, Dolores Quinones, and Isabel Costello, all of Decatur and Matilda Macias, Waco, Texas; and 17 grandchildren.

Services are set for 10 am Wednesday in the St. Mary's of the Assumption Catholic Church, Decatur.

Friends may call at the Haggard and Armes Funeral Home, Decatur, from 7 to 9 pm today and from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 pm Tuesday. The rosary will be recited at the funeral home at 8 pm Tuesday.

Burial will be in the St. Joseph Catholic Church, Decatur.

The Commercial Review, Portland, IN; Monday, March 23, 1992

Contributed by Jim Cox