Guerra Infant Dies Wednesday At Home

John Guerra, three months, died at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday at the home of the parents, Jose and Santiaga Guerra, 715 Schirmeyer street, after an illness of complications of several days. The child was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church.

Surviving are the parents; four brothers, Jesus, Jose, Pedro and Efrain, and four sisters, Maria, Velia, Wanda and Agnes, all at home. Graveside services, conducted by the Gillig & Doan funeral home, were held at the Catholic cemetery this afternoon, the Rev. Robert Jaeger officiating.
