

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, IN; August 22, 1953

Anselm B. Hackman 55, well known Decatur resident and General Electric employee, died of a heart attack at his home around 6:30 pm while sitting in a chair at his residence at 226 N. 9th street. Mr. Hackman suffered a heart ailment several months ago and had not been able to return to work following the G.E. vacation period.

Born in Adams county January 18, 1898, Mr. Hackman was the son of Bernard and Mary (Spuller) Hackman. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church, Knights of Columbus and the Moose Lodge.

Surviving besides his wife, Christina are a daughter, Mrs. Raymond Meyer and six sons, Joe, Patrick, Anselm (Jack), Edward, and James all of Decatur and Alvin at home. One son is deceased. Eleven grandchildren survive.

Funeral services will be held on Monday at 9:00 am at St. Mary's Catholic church in Decatur and burial will be at the Catholic cemetery.

Contributed by Matthew Hackman

Died August 21, 1953