

Douglas I. Hakes, 37, of Decatur, IN passed away on Jan. 28, 2005 at Lutheran Hospital, Ft. Wayne, IN. He was born to Ivan V. and Carolyn S. (Terveer) Hakes on Sept. 12, 1967 in Decatur, In. He has 2 brothers, Chris and Greg both of Decatur, and 2 sisters, Stephanie Spielman of Greenfield, In and Suzanne Flynn of Indianapolis, In.

Doug was a member of the St. Mary of the Assumption Catholic Church and its Holy Name Society. He was a current member and president of SVDP Society, member of the St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery Board, member of the steering committee for establishing the Adams-Wells Crisis Shelter, organizer of the "Ray of Hope" candlelight service for the slain State Trooper Cory Elson, Charter member of Love Inc. and past board member of the Community and Family Services. He was a graduate of Belmont High School in 1986 and also attended both IPFW and Ball State.

Visitation will be on Monday, Jan. 31, 2005 from 4-8 pm at Haggard & Sefton Funeral Home with a Rosary service at 3:30. On Tuesday, Feb. 1, 2005 a 9:50 prayer service will be held at the funeral home followed by 10:30 Mass of Christian Burial at St. Mary of the Assumption Catholic Church in Decatur. Father Philip DeVolder will be officiating and the burial will be in St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery. Memorials are to St. Vincent DePaul.

Haggard-Sefton & Hirschy Funeral Home online obit (accessed 10/29/2013)