

Bluffton News Banner, Wells County, Indiana; Feb. 1, 1954

Daniel M. Niblick dies at Decatur

Daniel M. Niblick, 84, retired drygoods merchant, died Sunday morning at his home in Decatur after an illness of 16 months. He had been engaged in business in Decatur over a long period of years before his retirement. Mr. Niblick was a native of Decatur and was a member of the St. Mary's Catholic Church, the Holy Name Society and the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus.

Surviving are the widow, the former Catherine Henneford of Vera Cruz; a son Harold at home, a daughter, Miss Mildred Niblick at home; a grandchild and four great-grandchildren. The widow is a sister of Mrs. Frances McFarren of Bluffton.

The body is at the Gillig and Doan Funeral Home where friends may call. Services will be conducted at 9 a.m. Wednesday at the St. Mary's Catholic Church in charge of Rev. Msgr. J.J. Seimetz. Burial will be in St. Joseph Cemetery, Decatur.

Contributed by JC