

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Wednesday, August 9, 1961

Bob Osterman Dies Suddenly

Robert L. Osterman, 50, of 4029 Robinwood Drive, Fort Wayne, a resident of Decatur until 1954, died suddenly of a heart attack at 7:40 a.m. this morning while on vacation at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Josephine Adams, 6048 Elston Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The son of Enos and Florence Wolfe Osterman, he was born at Monroe December 25, 1910. On November 12, 1930 he was married to Virginia Keller, who survives. He was graduated from Monroe High School in 1928.

An employee of International Harvester in Fort Wayne, he was a member of the Knights of Columbus, Holy Name Society, Moose Lodge, and the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Fort Wayne.

In addition to the wife and daughter, survivors are: children, Mrs. David (Rita) Moore, Decatur; Mrs. Warren (Nita) Gilley, Fort Wayne; Julia, and Patricia, at home; and James P. Osterman, Tacoma, Wash.; brothers, Harlan O., of Dayton, O.; Ray, of Monroe, and Enos, of Decatur; sisters, Mrs. Raymond (Dora) Cheever, of Booneville, Ky.; and Mrs William (Nellie) Lummer, of Dayton, O.; and three grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Zwick Funeral Home after 9 p.m. Thursday evening. The Holy Name Society will say the Rosary at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The funeral will be Saturday at the St. Mary's Catholic Church in Decatur, with burial in St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery. Funeral arrangements are not yet complete.