

RADEMACKER

Cornelius Rademacker, more familiarly known as "Curly", died at 12:30 o'clock today of complications of diseases, at his home, 236 East Pontiac Street. He was 57 years old on June 27 and was born in Decatur. He was in business in Decatur for thirty years and came to this city five years ago, being engaged in business here until two years ago, when he had to retire because of failing health. He had been seriously ill, however, only one week. He is survived by the wife, six daughters and three sons. The daughters are Mrs. Tom Ehinger, Vincennes; Mrs. Charles Wilt, of this city; Mrs. Arthur Mangold of Decatur; Mrs. Tracy Nelson of Toledo; and Mrs. Frances and Margaret, at home. The sons are Leon, Richard and Edwin. Seven grandchildren and the following sisters also survive: Mrs. John Gerard, Mrs. Phillip Ardner, and Mrs. William Lapin, all of Toledo. The deceased was a member of the St. Peter's Catholic church and the local order of Elks. Funeral services Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the St. Peter's church. Interment in the St. Joe Catholic cemetery at Decatur.

Contributed by Karin King