

Normand R. Richard, 85, of Decatur, IN, formerly of Tiverton, RI passed away on Friday, April 9, 2010 at his residence. He was born on December 6, 1924 in Fall River, MA to Daniel and Matilda (Mailloux) Richard. He married Theresa (Dumond) Richard on July 11, 1953; she survives in Decatur, IN.

He is also survived by a son, Paul Richard of Irvine, CA; a daughter Joyce (Dwight) Pierce of Decatur, IN; 4 grandchildren, Sarah and Lillie Richard both of Irvine, CA and Owen and Emily Pierce both of Decatur, IN; several nieces, nephews and numerous great nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and 13 brothers and sisters.

Normand was a member of St. Mary of the Assumption Catholic Church in Decatur, IN. He was a charter member of Knights of Columbus Father J. Boehr Council in Tiverton, RI.

Normand served his country in the U.S. Army during WWII. He worked as an upholsterer and retired from Harvey Probbler Furniture Factory.

A private Funeral Liturgy was held at Haggard and Sefton Funeral Home; Father David Voors officiated the service. The burial took place in St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery.

Haggard - Sefton & Hirschy Funeral Home online obit (accessed 10/19/2013)