BERNARD SMITH DEAD

DECATUR, Ind., Dec. 30 - Bernard, son of Mrs. Dina Smith, widow of Theodore Smith, is dead at the family home, corner of Jefferson and Fifth streets, after a week's illness of pneumonia. He was an employe of the Schader Saddlery company. He was a member of the St. Mary's Catholic church. The deceased was twenty-three years old. Besides the mother, there survive a brother, Mart, who is a soldier in France, and three sisters, Anne and Gertrude, at home, and Agnes, in a convent.
